Annual Congregational Meeting April 28

All members are requested to attend our annual congregational meeting after the service on Sunday, April 29. We will vote on; the budget for the upcoming 2019-2020 year, new members to the Board of Trustees, and new nominating committee members. Anyone is welcome to attend the annual meeting, but only those who have been members for 60 days are eligible to vote.

Ingathering May 19

If you have taken the Path to Membership class and would like to join the church, please contact membershipdevelopment@hvuuc.org or Rev. Briere minister@hvuuc.org before the Ingathering ceremony on May 19.

Upcoming Sunday Worship Services

April 7 Coyote, Rev. Jeff Briere

A special guest joins us to pester our minister and celebrate spring.

April 14 The Afterlives, Rev. Jeff Briere

In one afterlife, you re-live your entire life, but in reverse order. In another, all your similar experiences are grouped together, so you spend 200 days in the shower, 3 days boiling water and 4 months reading the newspaper.

April 21 Easter Sunday & Earth Day, Rev. Jeff Briere

For Easter: Don't let the stone stop you. It's only a stone. For Earth Day: The practice of our interconnect-edness

April 28 Flower Communion, Tiffany Sapp

The beauty of our surroundings, and the blessings of our community, call us to a time of celebration

Hogwarts School of Magic and Fun Is Returning July 15-19th!

We had such a magical week together last year and we hope to see many returning witches and wizards. We have so many magical moments planned! Registration prices go up April 1.

You can sign up at:

<https://hvuuc.org/2019-hogwarts-school-of-magic-fun/>

Summer Camp Volunteers Needed

We need adult volunteers for our upcoming summer camp! There are short-term and week-long positions needed for July 15-19. These positions include, but are not limited to, Head of House, floaters, kitchen aids, parking attendants, and shopkeepers in Diagon Alley. We will also need help July 13-14 for set up and July 20 for clean up. All of these are needed to make this a magical and immersive week, and we rely on YOU and YOUR support!! If you'd like to sponsor a child, write a check with Summer Camp in the memo and put it in the offering plate. Contact summercamp@hvuuc.org if you're interested or if you have other questions.

Dark and Light

Around the Spring Equinox we see a lot of metaphors involving “light” and “dark”. Often, the story of the balance of light and dark is told in an over-simplified way: light represents that which is good, and dark represents that which is bad. We see it a lot in Unitarian Universalist chalice lightings. When Martin Luther King Jr says “Darkness cannot drive out darkness: only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate: only love can do that,” he is equating darkness with hate and light with love. It’s an ancient metaphor. In my imagination, I see our ancestors gathered around a campfire in the dark. The fire is protection from the scary things in the night that might eat them. The fire is warmth in the cold.

But in conversations amongst my Unitarian Universalist minister colleagues, there is a challenge to see how we can move away from this metaphor, or at least play with it. The language and metaphors we use can influence how we relate to the world in ways that we sometimes don’t even recognize. If dark is a metaphor for hate and evil, and the bad guys in the old western movies always wear black hats, then what does that mean for a child who is told that they are “black.” If light is a metaphor for goodness and love, and the good guys in the old western movies always wear white hats, then what does that mean for a child who is told that they are “white.” How this metaphor may tie into white supremacy culture is one challenge. The irony is not lost on me that the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. used this metaphor in this way fifty years ago. But Unitarian Universalists of color today are asking us if we can use our imaginations in a different way now.

A perspective that sees the world as a polarity between “good” and “evil” is another reason that this metaphor is getting outdated. Polarities can tempt us to force people, causes or ideas into one camp or another, when in truth we are complicated beings and complicated movements that have helpful and less helpful aspects simultaneously. If one of the goals of human relationship is connection, then letting go of the good/evil polarity can create the possibility of connection where there once wasn’t one.

It is an interesting, creative exercise to flip the script. Darkness is rich soil that produces healthy crops. Darkness is a mother’s womb, creating new life. Darkness is eyes closed in meditation. Darkness is rest after a demanding day. Light is high-beams blinding you as you try to drive home safely. Light is the white cloaks of the Klu Klux Klan. My goal here isn’t to preserve the duality of good and evil, but to play with how the metaphor can go another way. Flexibility with our symbols often creates new possibilities that we never considered.

In personal growth work, the metaphor of light and dark is used as well. The “light” is the part of the self that we know, see and accept. The “dark” is the part of ourselves that are still hidden and unknown, often because they represent something about ourselves that we fear or can’t accept. Here the “light is good” and “dark is bad” metaphor also does us a disservice. How much stronger might we be, if we allow ourselves to be curious about what we don’t yet know about ourselves, rather than afraid? How beneficial could it be for us to embrace the unknown?

In many Earth-Centered traditions, the Goddess is dark and the God is light, and both have their positive qualities and their less helpful qualities. In the Jewish mystical tradition of the Kabbalah, that which is most sacred and unknowable divides into a sphere of dark and a sphere of light, both of which are good and necessary to create the world. In Unitarian Universalism, we can find that which is most sacred to us in both the chalice light, and in the moment of quiet darkness that comes before the light. It is my hope, that we see that which is sacred in every part of our world, and in every part of our selves.

Families Group April 20

April 20th the Families Group is hiking Buffalo Mountain! Wear your tennis shoes, pack a lunch to eat on the hike, and come join us for a hike up the mountain! We'll have a scavenger hunt to encourage even our youngest hikers to keep an eye open for everything that spring has to offer. We'll meet at White Rock Upper Trailhead at 10am.

For more information email families@hvuuc.org or look us up on Facebook under HVUUC Families Group.

Casual Game Night

2nd Saturdays from 6:00-9:30PM

Last regularly-scheduled game night of 2018!

This is a game night for everybody. We play a range of modern board and card games, from simple to not-as-simple. It's all for fun, no experience required.

All ages are welcome. We have a playroom and kid-friendly board games.

Bring yourself and optionally any cohorts, games, snacks, or drinks. Sharing is encouraged.

Come whenever you want, leave whenever you want.

If you arrive late you may have to hang out and observe while in-progress games wrap up.

Email gamegroup@hvuuc.org with questions.

It's Complicated Game Night

4th Saturdays from 6:00-9:30PM

An adults-only board game night at the church where the games don't HAVE to be complicated, but it's okay if they are. No experience required.

- Timing: starts at 6pm... bring food/snacks for yourself or to share
- Location: we'll be in the REZ
- Viability: need to have at least a few definite Yes responses on the Facebook group by the morning of the event or will cancel (no hard feelings)

No experience with complicated games is okay! They can seem overwhelming during rules explanations but they usually start to make sense after muddling through a few rounds.

Please make sure to arrive promptly so you can get to playing right away and not have to wait for a game to finish. These games often take over an hour to play.

Life Span Religious Education

What's Happening in the RE Zone?

All children need to be registered for Religious Education. Registrations this year are via the form on our website Religious Education Form

Pre K - 1st Grade

Joseph Priestley Room - This class is located on the first floor of the Religious Education building.

Learning and Fun through Stories

The PreK-1st graders focus is on Stories that have passed through the generations from World Religions, other Cultures and Nature...all with lessons to learn.

We invite children 4 years old and fully potty trained, through 1st grade to join us in our Pre K -1st class.

2nd - 4th Grade

David Thoreau Room - This class is located on the first floor of the Religious Education building.

Change and Transformations

The 2nd—4th graders will be looking at Change and Transformations together this year. We will watch our own changes as we grow this year; those in a special tree and nature nearby and on earth; the big movements of our planet and galaxy, and changes that we can make as we work for social justice. Each lesson will be connected to one of our U.U. principles and it will include a story from children's literature, as well as activities and experiences. (We will be outdoors fairly frequently, so please be sure that your child has sturdy shoes, and winter warm clothing later this year.)

5th - 12th Grade

This class will be on hiatus until the middle of April when the OWL class is over. If you have a child who comes to the Junior/Senior Youth class, they are encouraged to participate in O.W.L if age-appropriate. If they are not within the age limits they can assist in one of the other R.E. classes. This would be a wonderful opportunity to be a role model for the younger children in our congregation!

If you have any questions about the Religious Education program, contact Sarah White at DRE@hvuuc.org

Did You Know?

Red spruce, prior to unsustainable logging in the early 1900s, was a dominant tree on most peaks above 4,500 feet in Central and Southern Appalachia. After a dramatic decline, red spruce are now returning to Appalachia's highlands due to the efforts of conservationists across the region. For more information, visit www.southernspruce.org or www.restoredredspruce.org

Teacher Appreciation Dinner May 24

Religious Education appreciation will be held May 24th from 6:00-8:00PM. To all of our OWL facilitators, Youth Group facilitators, and RE Teachers, please save the date and let us provide dinner for you on that evening!

Adult Religious Education 1

Adult RE 1 meets on Sunday mornings at 9:30AM in the Meditation Hall of the Religious Education building.

February 24th the class began a new series "Ancient Civilizations of North America". The series has 24 lectures and begins with ancient migrations in to North America and moves on to explore the astounding accomplishments of the ancient North Americans before the arrival of Europeans.

Adult RE 1 usually meets even when other RE classes are cancelled. If in doubt please email Betty Berry for confirmation at AdultRE1@hvuuc.org

Adult Religious Education 2

From January 27 until April 7 Adult R.E. 2 will be transformed into the guardian parallel class for OWL. For the first time, guardians who have children in the O.W.L class have the opportunity to participate in the same curriculum. Our hope is that this will foster open and trusting communication at home!

Adult RE 2 is a fragrance-free class, please be respectful of those that are sensitive to fragrances.

Social Justice

Kingsport Kitchen of Hope April 1

In the basement of the Full Gospel Mission on Sevier St in Kingsport, is a tiny kitchen staffed entirely by volunteers that feeds dinner 6 days a week to 100-130 people. Diners have ranged from infant to 88. For many of them, it's their only meal of the day. The church serves dinner at the Kitchen of Hope the first Monday of each month. How can you help? Glad you asked.

The menu changes monthly. Volunteers are needed to help cook, serve and clean up.

Set up/cooking: 1:00-3:30

Servers: 3:00-5:00

Cleaners: 4:45-6:00

The kitchen is quite small, so if you want to help, please contact the coordinator so we don't end up with too many cooks in the kitchen!

You can also help by donating food or money for food. Or if you'd like to bake cookies, cupcakes, or other desserts ahead of time (note: we cook for 150, so if it's too much, you could always split this with another baker)

Like to plan ahead? We do this the first Monday of every month, so pencil us in with a big red pen! Please contact Kim if you can help this month kitchenofhope@hvuuc.org.

Family Promise Network

One part of our church's Social Action is to participate with Family Promise Network, both in Johnson City (Hopwood UMC) and Kingsport (St. Luke UMC). The program's purpose is to help homeless families achieve and sustain independence. One night per quarter we provide a meal and overnight presence to the FPN guests of the host churches. Our meals are simple and overnight duty consists of sleeping in your private room and assisting with breakfast the next morning.

When the next request for volunteers goes out, please consider helping with this important and much appreciated part of our church's outreach.

April Food Donations

Bring your donations of Peanut Butter and Protein Foods for this month's Hunger in Our Neighborhood collection. You can also now donate pet food. Donations will be shared between the Jonesborough Food Bank, Hunger First in Kingsport, and our own food pantry. Remember, the themes are for fun....not rules!

In Our Community

Appalachian Dharma and Meditation Center

Holston Valley Sangha (Wednesday morning session that was meeting at UU Church) will now be meeting at ADMC in Johnson City.

Yoga

If you would like to try Yoga to help improve your core strength, balance, and ability to relax, please join a small group that meets in the Meditation Room in the RE building on Tuesday evenings from 5:15 to 6:30pm. Your first class is free of charge – I feel it's important that you get a chance to try it before you invest in a series of classes. The class is a mixture of breathing techniques and yoga poses that flow from one into another. You do not need to be trained in yoga or have attended the last session to attend this series of classes.

Go to www.YogaWithTish for more information.

Northeast TN Ukulele Group

Home of Rosemary K. in JC. See FB post at or contact Rosemary@hvuuc.org

New monthly meeting for Uke enthusiasts of any ability. Beginner friendly. At this stage, we are looking at the 4th Thursday evening of each month.

The format for the evening as follows:

- Greet and setup.
- Jam two pre-selected songs. Songs will be posted on facebook and via email.
- The leader for that month will introduce a song for all.
- Business (next meeting location, news, etc.)
- Optional for any: perform what you are currently working on / simply want to share. All interested parties can place their name in a hat, and the performer(s) will be drawn until time is up. This might be all or a few depending on group size. If you want others to sing along, provide printouts, please.

Please note: This is a private home and has stairs.

Junior League of Johnson City Fundraiser Saturday, April 13

The Junior League of Johnson City is excited to announce our 4th Annual signature fundraiser-Cocktails: Meet Me at the Vineyard. The event features a catered dinner, drinks, entertainment, and a live and silent auction.

Cocktails is on Saturday, April 13, 2019 from 6 pm to 10pm at Maple Lane Farm in Johnson City. Not only is Cocktails a fun night out, it benefits the mission of the Junior League of Johnson City and funds initiatives to improve the health and well-being of women and children in your community.

Cocktails is the League's largest fundraiser and essential to our efforts to be a catalyst for change in our community. The Junior League of Johnson City is dedicated to raising awareness, gathering information, and educating women and the community regarding women and children's health and well-being. Currently, we are supporting various organizations in our community including the Willow unit (for youth and adolescents) at Woodridge, the Ronald McDonald House, Girls on the Run, and others through our commitment to voluntarism. This year's funding will continue the League's community impact through direct funding to agencies, leadership development of the members, and over 500 hours of volunteer assistance to health and well-being initiatives.

Junior League of Johnson City is a non - profit organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.

Please join us for this exciting event to learn even more about the impact the Junior League of Johnson City has made on our community.

The following ticket options are available:

$50: Admission & Dinner

$75: Admission, Dinner, & Unlimited Drinks

$600 Table Sponsorship: 8 $75 tickets with a reserved table and a bottle of champagne

Tickets can be purchased at juniorleagueofjc.com

Amazon Smile

As part of their Amazon Smile program, Amazon will donate 0.5% of every purchase to HVUUC. Two simple steps: First add HVUUC as your preferred charity on your Amazon account (go to Amazon Smile and search Holston or just use this link <https://smile.amazon.com/ch/62-1076195>). Second, whenever you make a purchase be sure to enter through the "smile.amazon.com" address. It's free money and definitely worth a couple of clicks. Questions? treasurer@hvuuc.org

Get Your Grocery Store Shopping Cards!

The church sells prepaid shopping cards, in various denominations, in the Fellowship Hall after the service.

When you buy a card for $100 from Food City or Ingles, this buys you $100 worth of goods at that store, and the church makes 7%, which last year was about $6000.

Register your Kroger customer card online, having our church as benefactor and we make about 5% every time you shop.

Just think of the results; if you just started to buy cards and you bought $100 today, and then bought this amount every week for a year you would provide $336 each year for the budget. We can all make a big difference if we unite behind this small effort!

Make Sure Your Kroger 5% Goes to the Church

People who shop at Kroger's need to register to have 5% of what they spend go to the church. This needs to be completed online. Our organization number is 83282.

2018 Tax Donation

If you need a receipt for your tax deductible donation to the church, email pledge@hvuuc.org.
